

TOR: Visiting Professor 2022
Chiang Mai University, Thailand

Grantee:

1. Key performance indicator (KPI)

Publication of CMU-affiliated papers in ISI Web of Science (Core Collection) Quartile Score 1 or 2

2. Nomination of candidate Visiting Professor

CMU faculties nominate Visiting Professor both capable of and likely to publish a minimum of 5 papers within a 12-month period using a CMU affiliation (indirectly using his/her foreign affiliation as the first author or corresponding author or co-author with a CMU-affiliated author). The nomination must be accompanied by a nominating letter detailing the candidate's qualifications and any current relationship with CMU, along with the candidate's CV and his/her publication performance in ISI Web of Science (Core Collection) in 2019-2021.

3. Terms of Support: 750,000 Thai Baht/year

(Seven hundred Fifty thousand Thai Baht) per year

3.1 225,000 Baht (30%) shall be paid after signing the contract.

3.2 300,000 Baht (40%) shall be paid after the University agreed on the progress report

3.3 225,000 Baht (30%) shall be paid after the University agreed on the final report ;

Visiting Professor publishing 3 papers as the first author or corresponding author using his/her foreign affiliation, but with a CMU-affiliated author

CMU-affiliated author publishing 2 papers as the first author or corresponding author, but with a Visiting Professor

3.4 The Visiting Professor can continue to work at his/her university.

3.5 The Visiting Professor must visit CMU to teach and/or conduct a seminar once during the contract period.

3.6 CMU will provide access to library, laboratory and computer facilities, once during the contract period to visit CMU.

3.7 CMU cannot cover other expenses, including any medical insurance for self or accompanying dependents, during visit to CMU.

3.8 Any publications eligible for the above contract terms cannot be counted as duplicates with any other projects already supported by CMU's Office of Research Administration.

Grant period: 12 months

.....

.....,

Visiting Professor